FBC NEWS

AUGUST 2010 MARLIN, TEXAS VOLUME 1 NUMBER 7

From the Pastor's PC

Many of you know that I was out of town speaking at a youth camp in Oklahoma this past week, and I can honestly say it is good to be back in Marlin. Camp was incredible as many young people surrendered their lives to Christ and made commitments to go into full time ministry. It was truly a blessing, but despite all this, there is something about being at home. The exciting thing is that here at home, FBC Marlin is experiencing many of the same things that I saw speaking at camp. During the month of July, FBC Marlin once again had several individuals join the church, and one young person feel called into ministry. It is always wonderful to see God moving in our church and changing lives. As a church, our job now turns to discipling and encouraging these individuals as they walk with Christ. I want to point out several events that are coming where we can support individuals within our church. One event is Sunday night July 8th FBC Marlin will be hosting a night of praise. The choirs of FBC Marlin and FBC Rosebud will be joining together to present music that they have been working on. I know that you would greatly enjoy and be blessed by their talents. Additionally, Sunday morning August 15th the children's choir will be presenting a musical entitled, "It's cool in the furnace." Anytime the youngest members of our church get together to sing, it is always incredible. A third activity that you will want to attend is the FBC drama ministry's performance of "The Last Pirate of the Caribbean." The dinner theater will make you laugh and think as you ponder what true treasure is. I am looking forward to seeing you all on Sunday, and like you, look forward to these wonderful events.

In Christ,

Eric A. Moore
