FBC NEWS

APRIL 2010 MARLIN, TEXAS VOLUME 1 NUMBER 7

From the Pastor's PC

The month of April is upon us already. It always amazes me how fast time passes. It seems like it was just yesterday that my son, Quinton was born. Yet, as I look at him now, I am amazed that he is already beginning to crawl (well actually its looks more like an army crawl.) Time constantly moves, and it reminds me that we are called to use our time to impact this city for Christ. On Sunday mornings I am currently doing a series on the book of Ecclesiastes. It is remarkable how many times Solomon implores his listeners and readers to enjoy life and love God because soon our time on this earth will be over. The question that this book has caused me to ask is, "Am I maximizing the amount of impact I can create with my life?" As Solomon explores difficult questions about life, I want us to reflect on how our lives meet and answer those questions. Additionally, the Tuesday noon bible study will be studying the book of Philippians in the Fellowship Hall, and the Wednesday night bible study will continue it's in depth look at Revelation. I hope that you will and can take advantage of some of the opportunities to study God's word as a church family as we remember, He has risen indeed. We have a reason to celebrate, and a reason to spend our time here on earth making Jesus' name great.

In Christ,

Eric A. Moore
