FBC NEWS

OCTOBER 2010 VOLUME 1 NUMBER 7
MARLIN, TEXAS

From the Pastor's PC

It is amazing that Quinton is already turning one. It seems like just yesterday, Rene and I were nervously awaiting the little guy. Life happens fast, and reminds us to make the most out of our time. In the current sermon series, "Family Tree," I am talking about how we can make our lives and families as strong as possible. Most of us can see how society has morally changed, but we fail to recognize changes within our own lives. This sermon series is a reminder of the values that we must live with and pass along to others. "Family Tree" is applicable to us all, and I hope that you will invite someone to come with you. Additionally, beginning Wednesday, October 13th, Janet Grams will be leading a class on how to share your faith. Often times in church we talk about the need to share Jesus with others, but do not explain how one can do that. This study will demonstrate how one can witness to loved ones and strangers alike. I hope that you will come and be a part of this opportunity. Finally, I want to say thank you to all the individuals who helped make the dinner theater a huge success. It was a wonderful time, and I am so thankful for the men and women that gave up their time to cook, clean, wait tables, and learn lines. I think I can speak for the church and say it was great. I look forward to seeing you all in church, and experiencing all that God has for us.

In Christ,

Pastor Eric A. Moore
